

Bremerisms (2021–2022)

Michael Brodskiy

Instructor: Mr. Bremer

Period 3

1. “Hey, your mom is coming over to my house tonight” — September 2, 2021
2. “Now, I don’t know why that is. I’m not smart enough at math to figure that out, but I know it is between those values.” — September 20, 2021
3. “It’s like an avocado — it’s got to be soft, but not too soft” — September 23, 2021
4. “You know, I tried to learn Spanish a few years ago — English is much worse — but when it came to congregations-congreg-conju-conjugations, I gave up” — September 23, 2021
5. “It was March 5, 1982. I had my first date. Yep. Don’t do what I did. I took her to see a movie. It was a forgettable film called Dead Men Don’t Wear Plaid” — September 23, 2021
6. Draws P and Q on hands “It’s because price and quantity go up” raises both hands “so we need to hold price constant” raises quantity hand — September 23, 2021
7. “You know what, I’ll be a pooppy pants” — September 23, 2021
8. “If someone has a, you know, bear in the cave, you have to tell them. You need to. They’ll appreciate it.” — September 27, 2021
9. “Am I that good at describing this? Yeah, I guess I am” — September 27, 2021
10. Taps aggressively while staring at a USS Arizona poster — September 28, 2021
11. “Look at that ascendance. Love it. ” — September 28, 2021
12. “Hey, bucks* cheese and crackers!” reaches into trash “Now, I’m gluten free so I can’t have it. Does anybody want these?” — September 30, 2021
13. “Look, I’m gonna be honest. When I walk by the dumpsters, if no one were around, I would grab the food. Have you seen some of the stuff they throw out? It’s beautiful” — September 30, 2021
14. “Can someone stop banging? Who is the banger?” — September 30, 2021
15. “Well, if you tell me your dog died ... I have some compassion” — October 18, 2021